

YOU ARE INVITED TO OBSERVE A HOLY LENT

WEDNESDAYS IN LENT

Lenten Book Study: Mother Sharon Sheffield will be leading a Lenten book study entitled “When Did We See You?” – Theology in Modern Science Fiction and Fantasy. The program looks at passages from selected novels from the past 70 years and discuss how these works borrow from and relate to Christian theology, the Bible, and current events. Authors will include C. S. Lewis, Madeleine L’Engle, and Mercedes Lackey, among others. The class will run Wednesday nights from 6:30 to 8:00 PM, beginning March 1 and ending April 19 (we will not meet the Wednesday of Holy Week). The class will meet in person in Larkin Hall at St. Thomas of Canterbury. Please RSVP to the St. Thomas church office (stlb47@verizon.net) if you plan to attend the class so we can have sufficient materials for all attendees.

THURSDAYS IN LENT

Lenten Soup Supper and Stations of the Cross: On each of the Thursdays in March (2nd, 16th, 23rd, and 30th), St. Gregory’s will host a soup supper beginning at 6:00 PM. Following supper, we will have the opportunity to explore different versions of the Stations of the Cross. Note that a different version will be presented each week for your reflective experience. Also note that we will NOT be having a Soup Supper or Stations of the Cross on Thursday, March 9th due to work being performed on our parking lot.

FRIDAYS IN LENT

Stations of the Cross: On each of the Fridays in Lent (February 24th; March 3rd, 10th, 17th, 24th, and 31st), St. Thomas of Canterbury will host Stations of the Cross at 12:00 Noon.

DAILY LENTEN DEVOTIONAL

Living Well Through Lent 2023: Practicing Compassion with All Your Heart, Soul, Strength, and Mind has daily reflections on the subject of compassion. Copies are available on the Parish Hall Information Table.
